

Lyme & US Veterans

US military personnel are at risk of contracting Lyme and other vector-borne diseases while on duty throughout the world. Confirmed cases of Lyme disease in military services have been diagnosed at more than 120 locations worldwide. In June 2015, the US Department of Defense appropriated $5M to Lyme disease research.

lymestats.org