

Alice In Wonderland

In 2011, a 7-year-old child with neuroborreliosis-associated Alice in Wonderland syndrome presented metamorphopsia and auditory hallucinations in the absence of previous tick bites or other signs of Lyme disease. The child was treated with intravenous ceftriaxone for 3 weeks with complete resolution.

lymestats.org